

World War II, Korean, and Vietnam War Veterans' Honorary High School Diplomas

The State Department of Education will issue an Honorary High School Diploma to any veteran from the World War II, Korean, and Vietnam War with Honorable Discharge papers.

Steps to get an honorary high school diploma:

1. Best for veteran to contact county or school system, but sometimes they send direct to the State Department of Education.
2. Veteran sends to school system –
 - 1) Honorable Discharge papers
 - 2) Name of veteran
 - 3) Name of high school if graduated
 - 4) Name of city of high school
 - 5) Name of county of high school
 - 6) Year would have graduated
3. School system also sends their address to mail diploma back to them.

School system can send information by fax (615) 253-6038 or mail to State Dept. of Education to:

Department of Education
Paul Rainwater
10th Fl. Andrew Johnson Tower
710 James Robertson Pkwy.
Nashville, Tn 37243

4. School system sends veterans information and school system's address to mail diploma back to school system to the State Dept. of Education.
5. We enter veteran information into an Honorary diploma template and print diploma.
6. Take diploma to Commissioner of Education for signature.
7. State Dept. of Education will mail signed diploma back to school system.
8. School system gets signatures of Director of Schools, Chairman of Board of Education, and Principal of School.
9. School system will mail diploma to veteran.